THINGS TO DO NOW TO Prepare for Summer Research & Internships

Many competitive summer opportunities recruit in fall and early winter. Plan ahead to get ahead!

1. Get your resume reviewed by a Career Peer Educator at the Career Center.
   Drop in hours are M-F, 10:00 am-3:00 pm.

2. Learn strategies for discovering and funding summer research & internships at Find It & Fund It.
   Thursday, Jan. 17 from 10-11 am at the Large Conference Room in Student Center B (Original Student Center).

3. Connect with a professional or faculty member in your field who can share insight and point you toward opportunities.
   Consider an informational interview, tap into the Alumni Advisor Network, or Coffee with a Prof Program, or make use of faculty office hours.

4. Prepare a personal statement and research proposal for your Undergraduate Research Scholarship application.
   The Writing Hub offers peer writing consultations at the Teaching + Learning Commons. Visit their website for info and hours.

5. APPLY for opportunities that interest you!
   Gather your application materials, take courage, and click Submit!
