Things To Do Before you Leave
- Purchase airline ticket
- Activate UCSD email account
- Arrange Direct Deposit for Financial Aid
- Register for UCDC courses
- Buy one conservative outfit and appropriate accessories for change in weather
- Communicate with your roommate about who’s bringing what
- Mail anything to the Center that you don’t want to carry on the plane
- Buy a good Washington D.C. map to use upon arrival

Housing Items to Bring with You
All of the apartments are furnished and include an extra-long twin bed/drawers, desk, lamp, clock radio and one closet per person. Bed linens are not included. The living room has a TV with a remote and we provide an iron and ironing board for each apartment. The kitchen has a refrigerator, stove, oven and microwave, a coffeemaker and toaster, dishes, silverware, glasses, cookware, and kitchen utensils. Student must bring a telephone, towels, extra long twin sheets, blankets, and pillow.

We suggest that you bring or buy the following items:
- A shower caddy for bathroom products
- Answering machine (coordinate with roommate)
- VCR for the living room TV (you cannot hook a DVD player up to this TV)
- Keychain for your keys (apartment and building access card)
- Cooking items that are specific to your needs: i.e. ricecooker, baking pans, etc.
- Kitchen towels, kitchen cleaning products and paper goods (paper towels, napkins, etc)
- Checkbook if you plan to take any field trips offered by the Center, and any fines that are assessed must be paid for by check.

If you have any additional questions regarding items to bring, please contact Mac Hamlett, Resident Manager at mac.hamlett@ucdc.edu

General Items to Bring to DC
- Laptop & computer disks (Ethernet connections are available at every bedside)
- Umbrella
- Student ID for getting discounts
- Camera and film
- Cell phone or long distance calling card
- Toiletries
- Overnight bag for weekend trips
- Walkman for commuting or exercising
- Comfortable walking shoes
- Hangers
- Briefcase or professional looking shoulder bag