FIRST YEAR EXPERIENCE
WEBINAR & WORKSHOP SERIES

The UC San Diego First Year Experience Program extends beyond the Fall course in the form of several programs and events. Here are the first two of a series of webinars and workshops we’ll be hosting.

Until our website goes up, find us on Facebook: UCSD First Year Experience

STUDENT VOICES: EXPERIENTIAL LEARNING IN PERSPECTIVE

Tuesday, Dec 2nd @ 3:30-4:30pm
Online Webinar with Tricia Taylor (AIP) and Student Panelists

Have you considered taking part in experiential learning opportunities offered at UC San Diego, but don’t know how to begin, or whether it’s worth the effort? Join our webinar featuring a moderated panel of current UCSD students who will share their experiences with academic internships, undergraduate research and study abroad.

Click here to make sure your Java is updated.
Join the webinar here (join 15 minutes early to complete Audio Setup Wizard)

BUILDING SOCIAL CONFIDENCE

Friday, Dec 5th @ 10:30am-12pm in the Dolores Huerta Room
Workshop with Dr. Tiffany O’Meara (CAPS)

Do you have difficulty talking with professors, speaking up in groups, making friends, or asking someone out on a date? Would you like to gain confidence in social situations? Come learn about what are typical thought and behavior patterns that keep us from taking social risks, and learn how to face your fears and build your social confidence.

Seating is limited. RSVP for the workshop here.

FOR MORE INFORMATION, EMAIL: JACQUELINE GUAN AT FYE@UCSD.EDU