INTERESTED IN AN INTERNSHIP IN WASHINGTON, D.C., OR SACRAMENTO?

Sign up for the Fall/Winter/Spring academic term with UC Washington Program (UCDC) or the UC Center Sacramento.

You'll get a life-changing opportunity to explore a career in public service while taking coursework in public policy and politics, earning academic credit and becoming eligible to compete for a $1,000 President's Public Service Fellowship.

Fellowships are awarded based on financial need and a commitment to public and civic engagement.

UCDC and UC Center Sacramento Internship Programs:
- Are covered by regular tuition and fees;
- Include opportunities to work alongside elected officials, in state or federal agencies, with advocacy groups, scientific organizations, public relations firms or in the news media;
- Come with eligibility for a $1,000 President’s Public Service fellowship that can help offset any incidental expenses associated with participation;
- Provide life-changing opportunities to explore a career in public service.

Learn more:
UC Center Sacramento
uccs.ucdavis.edu/for-students/admissions
UC Washington Program
www.ucdc.edu/internships/finding-internship